

Please keep in mind when determining these laws and regulations. A lot of New Jersey Residents work in a telemarketing office and depend on this income to provide for their families as to not be a burden on the state. I am a mother of four with a disability husband fighting for disability. I am the only source of income and it is with a telemarketing company. I am already hurt by the state and the federal government try not to hurt me anymore.